

Eco Risk Markets LLC

Job Posting – Credit Analyst

Company and Position Description

Business Description	Eco Risk Markets LLC (“Eco Risk”) is a private firm which specializes in helping companies manage commodity, foreign currency, interest rate, and capital risks. Our team has worked with leading companies to establish a practical approach to managing these risks through effective hedge programs and risk capital strategies. Eco Risk Markets has taken this approach to the next logical step and integrated overall risk management with our client's renewable fuels and sustainability initiatives. We believe an integrated approach to managing overall risk is imperative as new derivative legislation is enacted, renewable fuel markets continue to develop, and regulations become increasingly burdensome
